A Note from the Executive Director

Since I have your attention, I am going to celebrate a few incredible members. Two special groups of women have been hard at work behind the scenes this summer - the Member Journey and Grants Committees.

Recruitment season is officially kicking off with a series of events across Austin! Special thank you to Anne Helmick-Lyon and Melissa O'Reilly for putting together Impact Austin's fall membership recruitment events! Several hosts are making their events open to members and their friends. I encourage you review the open recruitment event list and come to one with a friend you'd like to have join Impact Austin. With your network, we will continue to grow!

With a more manageable summer schedule, I finally made it out to my first neighborhood Zone event, hosted by Dawn Skinner and the North Central Zone. I cherish quality time with members-and chatting with y'all over an evening glass of wine was the perfect summer Impact Austin moment. I hope that I'll see others at upcoming September zone events!

In Member Journey, Melissa Patel and Val Kirk, along with Operations Coordinator Suhailah Waheed, are working with a Community Engagement Team from Dell to revamp Impact Austin's Salesforce system. While databases and processes might not make everyone's heart flutter, a precise member relationship management system is absolutely critical to a membership organization of over 500 women. Thank you to Melissa for pulling together these resources from her extensive Dell network!

As a collective membership, we welcome Marla Whelen and Kathryn Drew to their new roles as 2020 Grants Committee Co-Chairs. Thank you to the team for diligently working this summer to transition our grants management software from Apricot to the new, improved software: Zengine. Our primary goal in switching was to improve our users' experience, both for volunteers and grant applicants. Grant reviewers will learn more about setting up their new profile in the coming months.

As always, much gratitude to Sarah Figueroa and Marketing for putting together this newsletter. I encourage you to forward this newsletter to women you think would be interested in Impact Austin. And share our social media pages and posts to help build the buzz leading into 2020 recruitment season.

I'm looking forward to seeing everyone at the 2019 Town Hall Meeting on Wednesday, November 6th from 5:30-9:00pm. Until then, I'll see you on the internet, at a Zone event, or in a committee meeting!

In sisterhood, Christina

P. S. In the welcoming spirit of keeping it social, I'll be visiting with new members at 11:30AM on Wednesday, September 25th at Brentwood Social House. Details will go out in a separate evite to members of the 2020 class. A special thank you to Robin Krumme for the fab idea. Hope to see our newest members there!

2019 Town Hall Meeting, Vote for Social Innovation Grant

Impact Austin will vote for our new Social Innovation Grant (SIG) on November 6, 2019. Save the evening on your calendar to see the grant finalist presentations and to vote for the recipient immediately thereafter. Details on location will be delivered to your inbox soon.

If you would like to learn more about the SIG process and what makes this grant different from the other Impact Austin grants, you'll find a more elaborate explanation in our blog.

Nonprofits interested in applying for the Social innovation Grant (deadline September 16) can find more information on our website.

Girls Giving Grants Recruiting New Members

Girls Giving Grants (g3) is looking for the next group of young women to become Central Texas' newest philanthropists! "I think it's so important for young girls to come together and empower each other to gain confidence, to grow as leaders, and to become informed and active citizens in their communities," said g3 president Katiana Soenen. "This is exactly what g3 achieves, and I am so proud to call myself a member and leader of the organization!"

All g3 members must be female, entering grades 8-12, and able to

Member Portal Update

Thanks to the excellent work from the Member Portal team, and support from Christina and Suhailah, the Board and the Technology Committee, we launched the Impact Austin Member portal in June. You can find the Member Portal HERE or you can click on the "member portal" tab on the Impact Austin website. (See top of home page.)

Thanks to those of you who have already logged into the Member Portal and updated your profile data. We will continue to make it easier to interact with Impact Austin and engage with other members through the portal. In our upcoming release we'll make it easier to request an update to your member zone, and to request a password reset from the Member Portal login page, along with some reporting and usability improvements.

If you have suggestions for improving the Member Portal, please use the "Feedback Page" to let us know about any fixes or additional features you would find useful.
